Luncheon in Environmental Science
Thursday, October 18

12 – 1:30 pm*, 404 Altschul Hall

Learn about Columbia's Masters in Public Health, a student luncheon with Professor Joseph Graziano, Environmental Health Sciences and Pharmacology.

The School of Public Health have had terrific experience with Barnard Environmental majors who've entered their program. You could be one of them!

*If you have class, come when you can to join the conversation.

Please RSVP by Tuesday, October 9 to ccook@barnard.edu
asap so we can plan the space and food (Roti Rolls) accordingly.
