

Environmental Science Department
Thursday Night Events and Seminar Series
**Attend five events and we'll send you a t-shirt!****

All Events Thursday, 8pm, NYC Time via Zoom.

- September 10    Welcome Back!
Faculty will give a quick intro to Thursday night programs, then Mentors take over.
- September 17    Trivia Night!
Join for a night of fun facts.
- September 24    Study Abroad Lunch.
Hear from students who have studied abroad from
- October 1        Nature Share.
Come prepared to share your favorite recent nature photos. You can watch the full moon rise where near where you live before the meeting (6:57pm, NYC). Check the time near you.
- October 8        Kailani Acosta, Lamont Doherty Graduate Student, CU
Nutrient Cycling in the Gulf of Mexico/Creating Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in Geosciences.
- October 15       Megan Maurer, Earth Institute Post-doc. Topic to come.
- October 22       Midterm-test-week Break
- October 29       Nina Yang '12, 4th year Graduate Student at USC. Topic to come.
- November 5       Election Post-Mortem. How to Find Research Projects, Email and Connect with Research Mentors.
- November 12      Public Health: Graduate School and Beyond
Introduction by Tiffany Sanchez Assistant Professor, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia
- November 19      Beyond Barnard Young Alumnae Panel
- November 26      Thanksgiving Break
- December 3       Summer Research Programs
Overview and strategies; SRI, REU, Lamont, etc.
- December 10      A Time for Reflection
What we learned this semester, planning for the spring. Forging a scientific identity.